

An Old Fashioned Christmas in Argyle

Join us for a community day of holiday celebration

On Saturday, Dec. 10th

Schedule of Day's Events

- 9 to Noon Christ's Closet open at the Argyle United Methodist Church. Come in and browse the many racks of trendy clothing from jeans, dress pants, shirts, sweaters, shoes and accessories.
- 9 to 3 Horse Rescue Holiday Open House and Can & Bottle Drive. Stop in to see our sanctuary horses and drop off any cans & bottles you may have. Adirondack Save A Stray will also be with some wonderful canines looking for families. Double L Stable Equine Rescue and Sanctuary 9 Tilford Road Argyle.
- 10 to 11 am Argyle Central School PTSA Sponsored Christmas Card making for all ages. Children please come and make an card for someone special in your life. This event will be held at the Argyle Free Library FREE of charge. When done with card, you may stay and listen to wonderful holiday stories from Sue McWhorter, then take your Christmas card home.
- 11 to Noon Children's Christmas Story Hour at the Argyle Free Library on Sheridan Street. Town Historian Sue Brennan will have toys and children's quilts with a Civil War theme from 10-1.
- 10 to 2 pm Argyle United Methodist Church is hosting a FREE tea with Christmas cookies and hot drinks. Check out and/or donate to our hat, mitten, and scarf tree, our prayer shawl ministry and our gifts for grandparents at PVI.
- 10 to 2 pm The Highland Quilters will host a FREE quilt show with a variety of items including quilts, aprons, table runners and much more in the Argyle United Methodist Church Sanctuary.
- 11 to 3 pm Business Showcase sponsored by the Argyle Community Enhancement Team in the multi-purpose room at Argyle Central School. Bake and craft sale to benefit Washington County Action Angels. Check out some of Argyle's many businesses represented at their own booth or at the ACET booth.
- Noon to 2 pm J. A. Barkley Hose Co. on Route 40 will see the arrival of Santa & Mrs. Santa, who will visit with children until 2 pm. Children will receive a goody bag and can visit Santa's reindeer.
- Noon to 4 pm FREE eggnog and donuts at Stewart's.
- 2 pm Argyle Presbyterian Church will feature a FREE piano and organ duet performed by Joyce Durkee and Betty Reynolds.
- 3:30 to 4:30 pm Central Washington County Girl Scouts will be leading visitors & community residents in Christmas caroling through the Village beginning at the R Stiles House. Bring flashlights as it will start to get dark before we return to R Stiles House. We need voices...all kinds of voices. If you'll be home, please contact Cher at 260-6748 and we'll try to visit your village home, too.
- 5 pm Community Tree Lighting immediately following the Christmas caroling at the R. Stiles House on Main St. with Mayor Wes Clark and Supervisor Bob Henke. FREE refreshments.
- 4:30 to 7 pm Argyle American Legion is hosting their popular Pancake Supper (corner of Rtes 40 and 47).